

Certificate course in 'Career in Mutual Funds'

This Certificate Course will help you to be a Mutual Fund Agent

Investing just a handful of money and getting a higher returns out of it is always fascinating. Mutual funds are one such type of investment scheme which helps you to invest and get the higher returns.

This certification course will make you learn and understand all about the mutual funds from the scratch.

The key objectives of the course are to provide knowledge about the management of mutual funds and understanding the complexities of mutual funds both internally and externally.

The course will also help you to gain the knowledge of risks and rewards of investing in mutual funds and equip you to pass the AMFI Certification Test. The course aims to provide all the useful insights on various aspects about the functioning of the mutual fund industry.

This certificate course will enhance your knowledge about the MF's (Mutual Funds) and empower you with the various options like working in mutual fund firms, investment firms/consultancies, finance management firms etc. You may also work as an independent agent and earn commission for each referral you make.

Enrol to know more about it!