

Certificate Course in 'Horticulture'

This Certificate Course will help you to start your Nursery Business & sensitize you on the importance of Greenery around

Horticulture is a branch of Botany which involves Science & Technology for production, processing and merchandising fruits, vegetables, flowers and ornamental plants.

We use this art in day to day life with growing plants at home or in and around us. Therefore it is very important to learn this art.

In this course learner will be able to learn different types of indoor and outdoor gardening and its applications.

The techniques can also be used to generate income by applying this as small scale business.

Enrol to know more about it!